[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
New York, Oct. 25.—While general confidence was restored by the notification of Morgan's agents that he would loan twenty-five million dollars at ten per cent and of Rockefeller that his millions would be loaned at six, several smaller banks have been forced to close their doors and more may follow today.

The Borough Bank of Brooklyn, with a capital stock of two hundred thousand dollars and deposits said to be in the neighborhood of three millions did not open its doors for business this morning. The business was not very large and no prominent financiers were connected with it.

The new dock will be located next to the dock of the United States Steel Corporation, the latter dock being the largest of any kind in the world. BEST ELEVENS WILL COMPETE SATURDAY

Game Between Wisconsin and Illinois on Saturday Afternoon Brings Two Best Teams in West Together.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., Oct. 25.—After all the gloomy stories sent out from the football camps of the Universities of Illinois and Wisconsin respecting the intercollegiate football contest to be played here tomorrow, the fact stands out that two of the best elevens of the west will fight a battle royal. Both teams are strong, Wisconsin having a shade the better in the backfield and Illinois a decided advantage in the line, with more experience in competition than the Badgers. Wisconsin expects to win and the hour reports are to be greatly discounted, notwithstanding the fact that Oshkosh, the strong fullback will be prevented from playing because of his fractured shoulder. It is said that he will surely be in later games and will play against Minnesota a month hence. The Wisconsin lineup has not been officially announced, but will be substantially as follows:

Left end, Rogers and Hodder; left tackle, Dittman and Doyle; left guard, Falsch; center, Stehm; right guard, Davidson; right tackle, Murphy; right end, Captain Messner; quarterback, Fackel; left halfback, Culver and Cooper; fullback, Wiley and Whitaker; right halfback, Muckelestun and Cunningham. It is said that the Wisconsin backfield will be completely changed during the game, so that an entire fresh set of backs can be sent in as soon as the first incomes tired. The officials for the game are as follows:

Referee—Kelly, Princeton.
Umpire—Wynn, Harvard.
Field Judge—Fleeger, Northwestern.

STUDENT'S BODY WAS IN LAKE MENDOTA

Man Whose Finances Were Poor and Whose Love Affair Unfortunate Took His Life.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., Oct. 25.—(Unrequited love, failure to get a position in the state capital, lack of money and too much religious passion combined to so trouble Chester Whiteley, a University of Wisconsin student, that he walked into Lake Mendota, lay down in the shallow water and drowned himself. His body was found by the coroner yesterday in the lake, 30 feet from shore, but the water was less than two feet deep. Today a coroner's inquest was held resulting in a verdict of suicide. Whiteley's roommate, John Kadansky, told of the extreme religious passion of Whiteley, told of how the student worried over money matters and of his failure to get a civil service position in the state capital, and of how a girl who had formerly treated him well had changed her feelings. Near the place where the body was discovered, part of the clothing of the suicide was found on the lake shore. Whiteley came from Oshkosh, was 35 years old and was taking a course here in dentistry.

BEGINS DISCUSSION OF POLITICS AGAIN

Beloit Free Press Sees Opposition to Henry Allen Cooper Springing Up.

Down in Beloit they think, breathe and live in a political atmosphere. Two weeks ago the Beloit Free Press came out with an article that Senator La Follette and his followers were going to invade the county next year for the sole purpose of defeating State Senator John M. Whitehead for his nomination for reelection to state senator. They named two or three names who might be induced to run against him and stated that work was already underway to defeat him. Now they begin a crusade against H. A. Cooper, congressman from this district. They have the following to say relative to this latest political development that will be interesting, as all three of the men mentioned as possible candidates are from Janesville.

"Congressional matters are warming up in many of the districts of the state and the first is not entirely dormant. That there will be determined and vigorous opposition against Congressman H. A. Cooper in the primary is positively known and some of the most prominent men in the southern part of the state are being mentioned as candidates and two or more of these will have their names on the big ballot when it comes to the voters next fall.

It has been known for a long time that Atty. Thomas S. Nolan of Janesville will be a candidate for the honor and judging from the start he made two years ago he will be quite a factor in the coming contest. Then the friends of State Senator John M. Whitehead are hoping that he will allow his name to be used. There are also others who will urge Philip Norcross to make the race and, altogether, Janesville seems to be well supplied with congressional possibilities.

"There is also rumor of a Walworth county candidate and undoubtedly Janesville can also come to the front with its favorite son, but the straws now indicate that Mr. Cooper will have the contest of his life at the coming primary—almost as strenuous as that convention at Monroe four years ago when his defeat was staved off solely by the loyalty of Chas. Ingersoll of Beloit to his cause. Cooper will not this year have any ingersolls to back him up, and the results will be watched with much interest."

CHAMPIONSHIP OF NATIONAL A. A. U.

New York, Oct. 25.—The National A. A. U. indoor championships, to open in Madison Square Garden tonight with the finals to be decided tomorrow night, promise to be the largest meet of the kind ever given in New York. As the entry list includes the cream of the athletic talent some record-breaking performances are looked for. Marlin Sheridan, the big Irish-American Athletic Club athlete, who is the all-around champion of the A. A. U., will be seen in a number of the events. Sheridan is the present champion at the three standing jumps, putting the eight-pound shot, putting the twenty-four-pound shot, pole vault for distance, and throwing the fifty-six-pound weight for height.

Bonus will compete with Sheridan for honors in the walk. Both have been training hard for the event and say they will give some of the cracks a hard run for first honors. Clifton of the Boston A. A. U. of the Chicago A. A. U. and Keating of the Irish-American A. A. U. will undoubtedly make the 100-yard dash interesting.

Ralph Rose, W. W. Cox, D. Morgan, M. McGrath and J. Flanagan will clash in the weight events. This will turn the event into a battle of giants, and there is no telling what the result may be. At any rate, it is more than probable that some records will go by the board.

PLYMOUTH ROAD SHOWS PROGRESS

MODERN MACHINERY AND HOW IT CAN REFORM ROAD BUILDING.

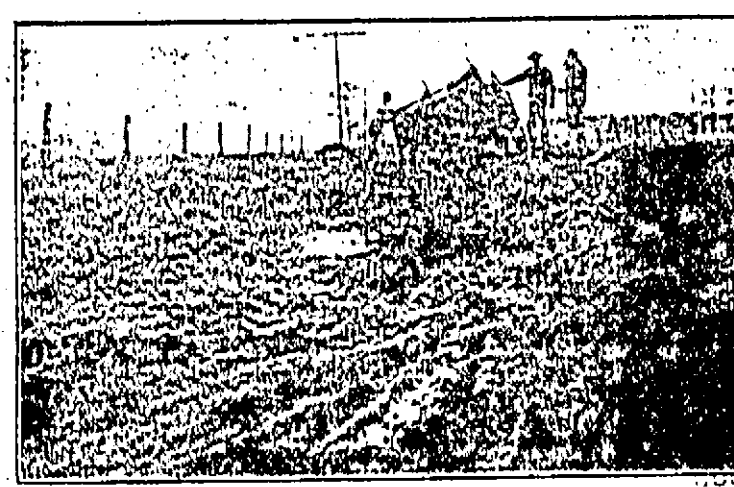

OLD METHODS DISCARDED

Supervisor Kane Shows that Farmers can Build as Good Roads as Experts.

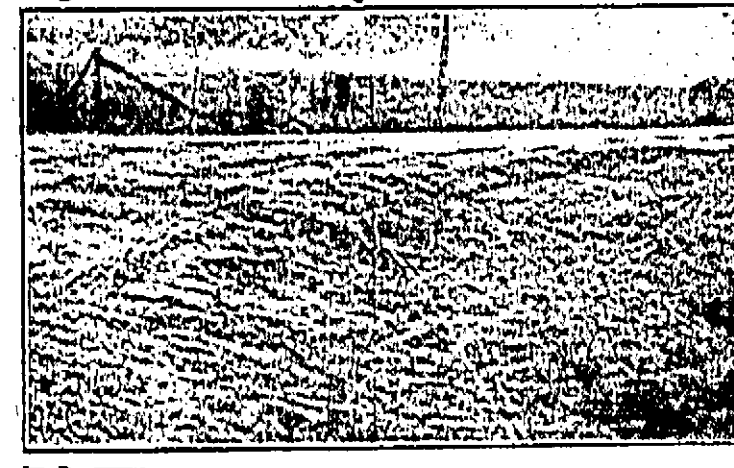

With proper machinery to work with there is no reason why the farm and country roads of any county can not be placed in as good shape as if the work was done under the direction of a high priced and costly civil engineer. Out in the town of Plymouth this is being demonstrated and not only the fact that country roads can be built at a small expense to the taxpayers but that a good steam roller is absolutely necessary for successful road building is shown.

The Plymouth road is an object lesson to the county at large and to the members of the county board in general. It would be an excellent idea if every member of the board could visit this strip of roadway while it is in process of construction so as to clearly understand how rural roads can be properly built at a small expense. Three to four thousand dollars a mile makes a road that will last with ordinary travel a life time.

but twelve to fourteen hundred will build a road that is good to all the purposes and can easily be accomplished by any township in the county.

Machinery. W. D. Hotchkiss, geologist of Genesee and Natural History Survey of the state and in direct charge of the highway work, has secured the loan of a ten ton road roller for this road and the work that is being accomplished by this machine is wonderful. It is a revelation to the farmers who used the old method of laying layers of gravel and crushed stone on a road and let nature and teams crush it down. The roller is handled by an expert engineer and rolls the different layers of gravel used in this particular road giving it a crown that insures good drainage. Other Tools To insure the success of road building the county should purchase a complete outfit of road-building material, including a roller, scraper, grader and dump carts. These dump carts would pay for themselves in a year's time as would the roller and all could be in constant use the summer through. The expense would not be great and the good, solid roads resulting from their use would more than repay the county authorities.

The Road The accompanying picture shows a bit of the road improved before the work was begun. It was slough of despond to the teamsters who were forced to use it during the summer and spring months when rains were frequent. In the distance is a big load of sugar beets that was tipped over and the cart has just been righted. This road has for years been one of the worst in Rock county and was as crooked as a ram's horn, winding around to avoid the bad places. The Work First the road was graded. Then a layer of coarse gravel was laid and rolled thoroughly. In this particular place considerable filling was necessary to bring up to a level. Then the shoulders were built of earth and rolled again and lastly a layer of fine gravel and sand was placed on, well wet and rolled hard and firm by the roller which brought the shoulders down to a firm level and gave the road itself a good substantial crown. Road Complete The cut accompanying this shows the roadbed after the final rolling. It is not yet ready for the last trip of the roller, but shows the elevation that was necessary to raise the road-bed so that a good drainage was possible. Small layers of stones have been placed through the road-bed at the depth of twelve inches, through which the water may find a way without washing the road-bed itself. Visit Road Many strangers have already visited the road, Aldermen Brown and

Sheridan of Janesville being among the number, as well as members of the town boards of Walworth county, where the good roads movement has taken much progress. All are interested in the work done and watch with interest the laying of forty yards of the material and rolling accomplished in one day. The load is two miles and eight teams keep the two men and superintendent at the road

Can a Christian be a politician?

Two Views of the road are shown here, giving an idea of the first layer, the shoulders and the laying of the top layer, with the roller in the distance. The road is now as straight as can be and runs directly into Janesville. It will be used by many this fall and next spring when its true value can be tested.

REV. IRL HICKS ON NOVEMBER WEATHER

St. Louis Long Distance Weather Forecaster Has His Ideas as to What Should Come.

Reverend Irl Hicks of St. Louis, the man who foretells cyclones a year ahead of time, has arranged the weather for the coming month of November to suit himself. He says: General autumnal rain storms with touches of lightning and thunder to the southwest, will center on the third, possibly touching the 2nd and 4th in their formation and progress from west to east. We predict that storms will take on decided boreal conditions from about the 5th to the 7th—that rains will turn to sleet and snow, generally to the northward, with rising barometer change to colder and very stiff to dangerous gales from the northwest, especially in all the regions of the great northern lakes. A regular storm period is central on the 12th, extending from the 10th to the 14th. This period will pass its crisis from Tuesday the 12th to Friday the 14th. Change to warmer, falling barometer and cloudiness will appear in western sections by the 10th and 11th, followed promptly by autumnal storms, but these storms will grow in extent and intensity as they pass over the country from west to east, reaching their climax in central eastern sections from the 12th to 15th. A reactionary storm period falls on the 16th, 17th and 20th. This period will bring falling barometer, with corresponding rise of temperature, followed promptly by cloudiness, rain and possibly snow. Change to much colder will rush down from the northwest about the 19th to 22nd. A regular storm period extends from Friday the 22nd, to Tuesday the 26th. During this period look for marked depression of the barometer, higher temperature and more rain, turning to snow north and west, about the 23rd, 24th and 25th. High barometer and change to colder, frost and freezing will follow the disturbances of this period. A reactionary storm period is central on the last three days in the month. This period will reach its crisis on the 30th. Upon the whole, November promises to be an average month for all exposed and outdoor interests. Much fair and open weather will alternate with storm periods. The rainfall will be light. We repeat our prediction of a minimum of rainfall this season, and November will not be excepted.

LOST IN THE MAZES OF A GREAT CITY

Christ, Brinkman Applied for Lodging at the Lock-up—Haled Into Court as a Drunk but Discharged—L. G. Fry's Curious Bump.

L. G. Fry, who was sent in here to work at the South Janesville yards, while in an intoxicated condition created a small disturbance at Baker's drugstore last evening. In municipal court this morning he told Judge Phillet that he recently fell off a hand-car and bumped his head and that since that time the use of liquor made him "simply crazy." The case was adjourned a week and he was released on promise of good behavior. Christ, Brinkman said that he had been at James Ryan's camp in Forest Park about a week assisting in the grading work; that he left the camp for the first time last night and lost his way, wandering to the Kulechbacher plant and back to town again in his effort to find it again; that he had not had a drink for two weeks, and that he had applied for lodging at the lock-up and the officers had locked him in. The night patrolmen were not on hand to substantiate his version but he was given the benefit of the doubt and discharged.

GIRLS GIVEN CHANCE TO MEND THEIR WAYS

Hazel and Harriet Smith, Aged Sixteen and Fifteen Years, Before Court on Charge of Incontinency.

Hazel Smith, aged sixteen, and Harriet Smith, who is one year her junior, daughters of Amos Smith, a painter who resides at 47 Pearl street, faced a charge of incontinency preferred by Townmaster Konyon, in municipal court this morning. The girls belonged to the trio who were arrested for spending a night with certain boys of bad reputation in an old shanty in the ravine near the corner of Garfield and South Third streets on Sept. 11. While the father had himself gone to the officers with his troubles on a recent occasion, he was not anxious to have them sent to the Girls' Industrial school at Milwaukee when the test came this morning. The children sobbed and threw their arms about his neck at the conclusion of the morning session and this afternoon Judge Finkel decided to adjourn the case until the day after Thanksgiving to give the defendants a chance to mend their ways. The mother died four years ago and it does not appear that the father has been getting in very early evenings or keeping a very close watch of his daughters.

SWIFT SISTER OF LOU DILLON

Annie Dillon Will Go Mile in Two Minutes, Says Millard Sanders.

Millard Sanders, who developed the trotting queen Lou Dillon, the first two-minute trotter, for her owner, C. J. G. Billings, is confident he has in his care one and possibly two members of the famous Dillon family that will add to the name and fame of Kidney Dillon, their sire, by trotting a mile in two minutes.

Annie Dillon, sister of Lou, is the star performer in training of the select lot of high class trotters Sanders has with him. At the Memphis track Annie stepped quarters in thirty seconds with remarkable ease. She finished several creditable miles, and the rail birds who timed her in one fast mile trial were responsible for several offers for the mare from rich trotting horse lovers, including Frank G. Jones, owner of the sensational green trotter, Highball. An offer of $10,000 for the mare was refused outright by Sterling Hilt, her owner.

Annie Dillon is four years old. She took to the famous two-minute Memphis track, under the tutelage of Sanders, in the same way that sister Lou did. The trainers at the track are unanimous in predicting a bright future for Annie.

WEEKS A HARD HITTER.

Colorado "Feather" Who Scared Attell Has Good Record.

Fred Weeks, the Cripple Creek (Colo.) featherweight fighter, who climbed into the limelight recently through the success of his efforts to force Abe Attell to grant him a match, has had an imposing ring career. Weeks made Attell look like a quitter during most of the negotiations, because the crafty Italian well knew the Colorado boy's great hitting powers.

Weeks was born in Butte, Mont., in 1883. His first appearance in the ring was in preliminary fights in his native city and at Spokane. His first fight of importance took place in Cripple Creek on May 19, 1906, with Young Eriksen as his opponent. Eriksen was rated as the featherweight champion of the Rocky mountain states, and Weeks got the decision at the close of the twenty round contest.

Not satisfied with the outcome of the fight and claiming lack of condition, Eriksen was rematched with Weeks, the mill taking place on June 21. This bout resulted in Eriksen's seconds throwing up the sponge in the first minute of the twentieth round in order to save a knockout.

Kid Sieger of Denver, now in the east, was Weeks' next opponent. Sieger was disposed of by the knockout route in six fast rounds.

Monte Attell came next. The fight was pulled off in the Victor Opera House on Labor day, 1906, and Attell was knocked out in six rounds.

Later a match was made with Jimmie Walsh, the New England bantam-weight champion. This fight took place at the Denver Athletic club, and Weeks earned a clean cut decision at the close of the ten round bout.

A dozen fights comprise Weeks' record. For the past month he has spent his time fishing in the mountain streams, camping out and strengthening his already rugged frame.

Trade With Colonies.

The trade of France with her colonies for 1906 aggregated over $200,000,000, of which $129,947,800 consisted in exports of manufactured products from France.

WANT EMPEROR'S EVIDENCE

COUNSEL IN BERLIN LIEB CASE TO SUMMON WILLIAM.

Editor Harden Announces His Important Witnesses—Army Officer Tells of Orgies.

Berlin, Oct. 25.—The hearing of the case of Count Kuno von Moltke, former military governor of Berlin, against Maximilian Harden, editor of Die Zukunft, for defamation of character, is growing more sensational every day.

In the course of Thursday's proceedings Dr. Von Gordon, counsel for the plaintiff, declared that he would eventually ask for the testimony of Emperor William to prove that Count von Moltke has never used his official to promote political ends. Herr Bernstein, counsel for Harden, agreed to this proposal.

Harden has said that he will call as a witness Paul Liman, the author of a life of Emperor William, who will testify that the late Prince von Bismarck once expressed himself concerning the immoral excesses of Prince zu Eulenburg in the strongest terms imaginable. Harden will also call Prince von Buelow, the imperial chancellor, and Field Marshal Count von Hohenhausen, chief of the emperor's military cabinet.

The bench has decided to admit testimony to prove that the alleged practices prevailed among the friends of Von Moltke. The public will be excluded from the hearings, but representatives of the press will be allowed to remain.

An army officer who had served in the Guard du Corps at Potsdam was called as a witness and testified to having taken part in unnatural orgies at the house of Count Lynar, which had resulted in the dismissal from the service in disgrace of the count and Lieut. Gen. Von Hohenau.

At the federal prison at Leavenworth, Kan., 956 prisoners are engaged in building around and over them the very prison in which they will be confined. This institution, when completed, will be the largest and best equipped federal prison in the country. It was begun in 1898 and probably will not be finished for several years. It has a frontage of 800 feet, with a depth of 900 feet in the rear.

HIS OWN IDEAS OF SITUATION

REVEREND COFFMAN DISCUSSES CHURCH MATTERS FREELY.

CAME FROM THE EAST

Handles Vacancies in Different Churches Very Freely and Without Glove.

The following article is contributed by Rev. Coffman who supplied the Methodist pulpit at Darby and Fairfield last year. The conference recently held in Milwaukee assigned him to the church at Richmond and the people there object for reasons which he states. Mr. Coffman is from the east and has not yet become acclimated.

Six pulpits on the Janesville district of the Wisconsin Conference, without pastors, bear witness to the shortage of Methodist preachers at the present time. The churches are those at Darby, Fairfield, Richmond, Ottawa, Corners, La Grange and Heart Prairie, all in the county of Walworth. Three men are all that is required and the presiding elder has but one man for the positions, and he being unmarried and known as somewhat of a non-committal champion, and as inclined to direct dealing with the situation.

Mr. Coffman has been rejected by one church and asked for by none. The one immediately available man is Mr. Coffman, who served the Darby and Fairfield charge last year, and was appointed this year by Bishop Hamilton to Richmond and Ottawa Corners. But a large proportion of the Richmond church members are women whose husbands are not members and it is said that he is to be withdrawn from the position.

Mr. Coffman is an unmarried man and the charge has a pleasant parsonage. Objection is also raised to some of the methods employed by the new pastor during the past twelve months. He has used the local papers as a medium for reaching the non-church-goers with discourses of moral and religious problems, and has been outspoken in his handling of the temperance question and other practices which he regards as evil. He is said to be a hard worker, having reported more than eight hundred pastoral calls during the last year, besides preaching three times on Sunday and assisting in other services of the two congregations at Darby and Fairfield, traveling frequently about.

Bishop Hamilton has since written that "In the absence of the Bishop, the Presiding Elder is his representative. I can not be on the ground. He must judge for me."

That other presiding elders are exposed to the situation is not clear.

performing great difficulty supplying their churches with pastors is shown by advertisements in the leading Methodist paper of the west last week, where 25 men were asked for, and salaries as high as one thousand dollars offered the right man. These calls came from Wisconsin, Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota, Dakota and Nebraska, and are said to represent but a small part of the total demand.

Large Funeral Party Comes Here with Remains of W. C. Kent That Were Buried in Oak Hill.

Arriving here in a special car of the Minneapolis, St. Paul & Sault Ste. Marie line, a funeral party of fifteen members came to this city this morning over the St. Paul road to accompany the remains of the late W. C. Kent to their last resting place in the Oak Hill cemetery.

The cortege proceeded from the depot to the residence of Horatio Nelson, 103 South Jackson street, where the remains lay until 10 o'clock, when they were taken to the cemetery. Short services were conducted at the grave by the Rev. Lawrence Kent, son of the deceased. Six members of the party from out of the city acted as pallbearers, they being railway associates of the deceased. Those who preceded to this city to attend the last sad obsequies over all that was mortal of W. C. Kent were: Mrs. Kent, widow of the deceased, of Minneapolis; the Rev. Lawrence Kent, son of the deceased, of New York City; Clarence Kent, son of the deceased, of Minneapolis; the Rev. E. W. Kent, brother of the deceased, of Vermont; H. M. Lewis and A. E. Hodson of St. Paul; Henry D. Pike, D. L. J. N. Farnsworth, H. M. West, H. L. Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Growl, Mrs. G. W. McMillan, W. B. Chandler, E. B. Dodd, C. A. Campbell, and J. H. Blahut. All of the latter named are officials and employees of the Soo Line, of which system the deceased was superintendent of the sleeping car and commissary department. The party left in the private car on the North-Western for the north at one o'clock this afternoon.

As a tribute of esteem many friends contributed offerings of beautiful flowers that were brought to the city with the casket. Large groups of these were sent to the Morey hospital this afternoon at the request of the railroad officials.

62,000 TONS OF CURRANTS.

Britons Seem to Be Exceptionally Fond of This Fruit.

Our great-grandmothers, although they had to pay a very high price for dried currants, considered them quite indispensable to the compounding of those pies, tarts and puddings which were the pride of every housewife. Domestic catering must have been an arduous undertaking in those days, for currants and other dried fruits were not to be procured out of London except once a year, at the annual fair of the local market town. The royal dish of plum porridge, which it was the privilege of the archbishop of Canterbury to serve to a newly crowned sovereign, was composed largely of currants, the fruit being stewed in strong beef soup enriched with red wine and red sack. Now that the order has changed and simplicity is the keynote of the highest class cookery, we Britons have trouble our appreciation of the homely and wholesome currant; and although puddings and plum porridge are dishes of the past, no less than 62,000 tons of currants go every year to the making of bread cakes, pastries and puddings to tempt the British appetite.—Ladies' Pictorial.

On the Death of Balzac.

There can be but austere and serious thoughts in all hearts when a sublime spirit makes its majestic entrance into another life, when one of those beings who have long soared above the crowd on the visible wings of genius, spreading all at once other wings which we did not see, plunges swiftly into the unknown. No, it is not the unknown; no, it is not night, it is light. It is not the end, it is the beginning! It is not extinction, it is eternity. Is it not true, such tombs as this demonstrate immortality? In the presence of the illustrious dead we feel more distinctly the divine destiny of that intelligence which traverses the earth to suffer and to purify itself—which we call man.—Victor Hugo.

Shakespeare and Surgery.

The fact that Shakespeare was ahead of his times is proved by a line in "The Taming of the Shrew," where one of the characters says: "My master hath appointed me to go to St. Luke's to bid the priest be ready to come, against you come with your appendix."

Don't Eat Oats.

It is the autoist's turn to laugh. His machine requires neither hay nor oats, and that is a great and accelerating advantage according to current and recent as well as prospective quotations.—Troy Press.

FORMER INSURANCE MAN IS CONVICTED

JURY SUGGESTS MERCY

Defendant Was Vice President of Mutual Life—First Conviction Resulting from Legislative Inquiry.

New York, Oct. 25.—The first conviction in the cases based on the disclosures in the legislative investigation of insurance affairs in 1906-1907 was obtained by the district attorney's office Thursday night when a jury in the criminal branch of the supreme court found Dr. Walter R. Gillette, former vice president of the Mutual Life Insurance company, guilty of perjury in the third degree.

The verdict was accompanied with a recommendation for mercy. The maximum penalty for this degree of perjury is ten years' imprisonment.

Retains His Composure.

The jury was out one hour and 25 minutes. In the interval Dr. Gillette chatted with his son and daughter. If he was at all nervous he did not betray his state of mind. When called to face the jury, however, he paled perceptibly, the pallor giving way to a flush as he heard the verdict. For a moment he appeared surprised, but promptly recovered himself.

Dr. Gillette is 67 years of age and is well known in medicine from the practice of which he retired some years ago. He was born in Philadelphia.

Perjury Before Grand Jury.

The specific charge upon which Dr. Gillette was found guilty was that he had testified falsely before the grand jury on May 24, at which time he was vice president of the Mutual. The indictment alleged that Gillette, under examination by District Attorney Jerome, stated that certain moneys in the Doherty bank were his personal funds, and that subsequently under a cross examination he admitted the funds were really the property of the Mutual Life.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 25.—The decision of the appellate court affirming the decision of the criminal court of Cook county, which found John A. Cooke guilty of embezzlement while acting as circuit clerk of Cook county, and sentenced him to imprisonment in the penitentiary, was affirmed by the supreme court Thursday. The supreme court found no grounds for error in the case.

The supreme court also affirmed the judgment of the criminal court of Cook county, which found George S. McReynolds guilty of embezzlement and sentenced him to the penitentiary. McReynolds had issued warehouse certificates against grain owned by himself and his own elevator, and deposited the receipts as collateral for money borrowed from banks on the grain, and when the receipts were returned there was no grain in the warehouse.

Beach's Peosta Soap

It cleanses so readily, so completely, there is no need of hard rubbing, hence the great importance of washing the delicate things The Peosta Way.

Peosta Soap is pure—a scientific cleanser.

15.—To wash laces, center-piece and line hand work, first cover a bottle with several thicknesses of clean white damask, sewing it tightly. Have bottle partly filled with sand or water and soap. Roll the lace very smoothly around the bottle, several times if necessary. If the article is large, it may be folded, very smoothly, and then wound around. Cover with clean soap suds, enough to cover bottle. Bring slowly to boiling point, pour off suds and repeat until article remains clean. Rinse in several (cold) waters. Allow lace to remain on bottle until perfectly dry.

Peosta Soap releases the dirt, hence no hard rubbing—no boiling.
